

Exodus Refugee Immigration Inc.
Position: Intensive Case Manager
Salary Range: $30,000 – $34,000

Exodus Refugee Immigration is seeking a full-time Intensive Case Manager to deliver supportive services to refugees through our Intensive Case Management Program.

Responsibilities:

The Intensive Case Manager will provide intensive case management services to support newly arriving refugees with mental health and medical needs to access and connect with resources. He/she/they will work closely with Exodus Mental Wellness staff and other health providers in order to provide appropriate case management services. This will include conducting intakes, assessments, training, and developing individual care plans. The Intensive Case Manager will also advocate and network with various mental and physical health clinics to build capacity for refugee health and case management needs.

Qualifications:

Preference given to candidates with a Bachelor's degree in Social Work or Bachelor's degree in a related field with equivalent experience, preferably in mental health services. Preferably has experience with case management in an international and/or human services setting.

Must have experience in helping others access community resources.

Must be able to effectively communicate with clients of diverse cultural, religious, and language backgrounds who have experienced traumatic circumstances.

Proficiency in foreign language is preferred, but not required. Must be a self-starter with a high level of organizational skill, flexibility and commitment to the mission of providing compassionate and responsive services to refugee clients.

Must be able to function as part of a diverse team. Must have valid driver's license, insurance, and vehicle that can be used to transport clients to and from appointments.

Send resume and cover letter to Chelsea Davey at cdavey@exodusrefugee.org